he boy's lawn reeked on his knees, overhead in the tall trees. Late sunlight turned the twigs to gold there was the sound of homebound bees.

A thrush was singing late somewhere, the high clouds said it would be fair tomorrow, they were like white shells strewn across the evening air.

The boy dipped in his kitchen spoon. He would be a tall man soon like his father, his father said. And go out evenings with the moon.

He would marry a girl he knew. And have a horse, or maybe two. The sweetpeas were like little birds beside the stoop, but never flew.

The morning-glory strings got tight. Each time when it was coming night his knees would not be bare at all. Trousers would keep them out of sight.

Cows would be good to have around. Their bells had an evening sound. His toes were always cool outdoors. His toes were the color of the ground.

A man would never want to wade in the pools a shower made. This spoonful was the last there was, tomorrow he'd play house in the shade.

"Bread and Milk on the Stoop" by (Robert T. Tristram Coffin).

It cost Henry Ford a cool hundred million to change from Model T to Model A.

Generally speaking, the machine dominates all Western civilization.

The accident death rate for locomotive firemen in nine times the normal rate, and their average age at death, thirty-seven years.

Mr. J. D. L. Haines, analyzing death rates by occupations in England, finds that the two great destroyers are alcohol and dust. The most dangerous occupation is barman, whose death rate is two and one-half times the average for all. Tin miners and file makers, both breathing quantities of dust, follow with a rate two hundred per cent above normal.

ROCKYFORD

Mrs. T. Hirt who had her hand severely burned last week when she accidentally poured hot fat over it, is getting along nicely.

Mr. Carl Browne was taken to Calgary suddenly in the early hours of Wednesday where he was operated on for appendicitis. Latest reports are that he is getting along nicely.

The funeral service at which a large crowd attended for J. M. Prater was held in the United Church on Friday afternoon by Rev. P. Chapman. Masonic service followed at the graveside. Sympathy of the friends and community is extended to Mrs. Prater and family.

On Friday evening a concert was put on by the Brownies and Cubs in the town hall for their parents and friends. The program is as follows: Brownie song, Cub song, followed by everyone singing "O Canada." Brownie song by all the Brownies.

A piano solo which was to have been given by Betty and owing to illness was given by Patsy Clark.

A short skit was given by Cubs. Clifford and Howard Pourroy delighted the audience when they sang songs on the stage. Both boys were dressed in suitable cowboy outfits.

The second half of the program was a short play entitled, Sleeping Beauty. The cast as follows:

May Flower ————— Iona Lester King ————— Margaret Pourroy Queen ————— Mary Jean Wise Nurse ————— Eva Harwood Fairy Rose ————— Rosetta Davis Fairy Lily ————— Betty Gablehouse Fairy Crocus ————— Barbara Gillespie Nettlesing ————— Patsy Clark Prince Valiant ————— Helen Pedder Guard of Honor ————— Marilyn Diebert

The beautiful costumes which had such a pretty effect were made by Mrs. Carpenter and Mrs. Gillespie. During the intermissions Sara Davis gave piano selections.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Stone returned to Rockyford at the week end and have for the time being taken residence in the Marlowe house.

The annual meeting and election of new officers for 1936 will be held on Thursday, December 12th in the Church parlors. A good attendance is requested.

Mr. and Mrs. N. Nilsson spent Tuesday in Calgary.

Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Garriott and Clifford motored to the city on Friday last.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted James of Tabor and Mrs. Mary Scheer returned on Friday from a motor trip to the coast. Mr. and Mrs. Norman Scheer on Sunday.

Church services will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Garriott on Sunday afternoon, December 14th at 2:30 p.m. Rev. Chapman of Rockyford United officiating.

Miss Elizabeth Garriott of Scarborough, Ind. will make an extended visit with relatives in the neighborhood.

The many friends and neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. W. Weyers gathered at the family home on Monday evening last to extend to the young people hearty congratulations and sincere good wishes for a happy and prosperous married life. Music, song and laughter and the sincere warmth of good fellowship made the evening an outstanding event. After the delicious refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. Frank Wilson and Miss Claver, the young bride passed around the numerous and beautiful wedding gifts for all to view and admire. The evening was then brought to a happy ending by singing. "For they are jolly good fellows," and Auld Lang Syne. There were 102 guests present.

BAINTREE

A most successful party was held at the School on November 22nd. Six tables of bridge and six of whist formed the entertainment for the evening. Honors went to Mrs. Olson and Mr. R. Hunt of Calgary for bridge. Mrs. Molinas and Billy Jean, Jr. took the prizes in whist. An angel food cake donated by Mrs. Jacobs was a rare addition to the Christmas feast. Mrs. May wishes to thank all those who supported the Christmas treat. Real district spirit was shown when practically every family of the district was represented.

Mr. and Mrs. Longbottom spent a few days in Calgary.

Mr. and Mrs. May were week end visitors in Calgary.

The Christmas entertainment, is well on its way. From the old remark heard about us, "Think the grade ten one act play is going to be worth while seeing."

Monday, December 22nd is the date set for the Baintree Xmas tree.

CARSELAND

The last meeting of the Ladies Aid was held at the home of Mrs. Walter Rowe, when arrangements were completed for the Supper and Bazaar. These were held Thursday and a large number turned out to take part. Following supper a good programme was presented by Mrs. Stansby, Miss Dick, Doris, Eileen and Dorcas Stuart, Edna and Mrs. Stinson, Gerald Van der Velde and Rev. Forster.

Two card parties have been held in the school during the past week one in aid of the Christmas Tree Fund and the other a benefit party. Both realized a helpful amount for their objective.

Miss Mary Dixon of Balemah had just returned from a prolonged visit to England, and reports a splendid experience.

Mrs. T. R. Field has gone into the hospital in Calgary for treatment, and we trust she will be out again in time to enjoy the Christmas Cheer at home.

of grain to submit questions or suggestions on problems, all of which will be answered. The program includes questions and answers will be broadcast.

The first talk on December 6th will be introductory in the nature and will contain some announcements of particular interest to the farming community.

GOVERNORS-GENERAL

The Five Press Agents—Canada has not had many Governors-General of literary distinction, but one name comes to mind. The Marquis of Lorne, 1870-1882.

Canada has not had many, Governors-General of literary distinction, but one name at any rate comes to mind—the Marquis of Lorne, who held office from 1870 to 1882. The Marquis was also a patron of the arts, an interest deriving no doubt from his authorship. In this connection he was instrumental in the founding of the Royal Society of Canada which came into being in 1882.

But it is as an author that he will best be remembered, and although he was some little writing to his credit, his chief claim to literary immortality is his famous hymn, which begins—
"Ode the little around do I hit up
My longing eyes;
Oh, where for me shall my salvation come.
From whence arise?"

This is one of the finest hymns of the latter part of the nineteenth century. Lord Dufferin did much to raise the dignity of Canadian drama. There is considerable hope stirring, therefore, in the hearts of Canadian writers, that Lord Tweedsmuir will be instrumental in exalting the status of Canadian Literature.

His Excellency Lord Tweedsmuir, following in these footsteps, may be sure to add to the list of the contributions of his predecessors.

GOLF BRIDGE PARTY

Eighteen tables were arranged by the Ladies of the Golf Club for their party Wednesday evening. The latest of various players were now up and down, with the final result of high score being won by Miss Gladys Hughes and Tommy Chamberlain while Miss Gordon and Mr. Lids were awarded the consolation.

Following choice refreshments Mr. Spence Hughes, president of the Men's Club presented the prizes, accompanying each with some bright bit of humor, which was most pleasing.

Championship Cup—Miss Sorensen also won 3 other prizes.

Runner up—Mildred Marcum, who also won 3 other prizes.

Gross Score Cup—Mrs. A. V. McParland.

Championship Miniature from last year—Miss Mida Hughes.

Hidden Hole—Mrs. Pierson.

Gross Score, 2nd Flight—Gladys Fessenden.

Ladies Foursome—Mrs. T. S. Hughes, Miss Gordon.

Handicap—Mrs. Nichol.

Hidden Hole Comp.—Gladys Fessenden.

One Club—Mrs. Pierson.

Mixed Foursome—Mr. Cameron, Miss Sorensen.

Gross Score Cup, Spring Comp.—Van Tighem.

Gross Score Cup, Fall Comp.—T. S. Hughes.

The draw for the turkey, made Mr. Pierson the lucky winner. The evening was a happy one throughout.

NIGHTINGALE

The members of the community choir Association held their annual meeting at the hall last Friday. It was much regretted that so many members were absent. Mr. Harriman was elected president. Mr. James Vice president, C. R. Gladwin, secretary. The financial statement showed a good balance sheet and it was decided to make some improvements in kitchen and install a ventilation. Christmas is the main topic these days and the schools are busy getting ready.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Harper and daughters returned to their home at Chesham. Mrs. Ruth Slonaker accompanied them.

Mr. and Mrs. Hartell and family of Chesham were Sunday visitors at the Harriman home.

Mr. and Mrs. Peltan and Leonard Hilton were Calgary visitors last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Harriman announce the engagement of their daughter Rachel to Norman P. Bragg of Rockyford. The marriage will take place this month.

NEW START FOR ALBERTA YOUTH

Laws should be passed in the province whereby:

- 1 The working hours be reduced to eight hours a day so that more people be employed and also have longer leisure hours.
- 2 People be made to retire at a certain age, say sixty or even fifty so that vacancies would be continually left for the unemployed and the youth of Alberta.
- 3 A higher inheritance tax be paid. Leave the widow and unable dependent enough to live on comfortably if the father made a fortune "who can't the son make one for himself."
- 4 Or better still, a law whereby the wealth of a man is limited. If he makes more money than the limited amount, let the state take that amount and spend it usefully and to the benefit of the whole province.

There should be a larger program of public works carried on in the province, are and better highways and byroads should be built so as to provide work for the unemployed and to establish better communication by automobile. There also should be a plan along the same lines as have been adopted by the European countries have adopted, whereby two trees are planted where one is cut down. This practice of forest conservation should be upheld in the provinces. A larger Forest Ranger service should be established to help prevent forest fires. Also a department of entomologists to combat the large forest destruction by insects. The three largest destroyers of our forests are fire, insects and man, so why not guard against these destroyers. Irrigation projects should be developed so that the water in our large rivers could be used to its fullest extent not only in the dried out areas but all over it.

All these public works projects would provide a great amount of labor for the vast number of unemployed within our borders.
